NOTES

Truth to carry into the week.

01 Words are seeds, and speech produces a harvest.

- The fruit of the mouth fills a life just as surely as planted seed produces a crop. (Proverbs 18:20-21)
- Jesus connects the words a person speaks with the condition and treasure of the heart. (Matthew 12:33-37)
- The word of faith is near the believer—in the heart and in the mouth—so speech can agree with what God has said. (Romans 10:8-10)

“Words are seeds. Speech will produce a harvest.”

STUDY Proverbs 18:20-21; Matthew 12:33-37; Romans 10:8-10

02 The mouth must agree with the identity and salvation received in Christ.

- Faith receives God’s righteousness in the heart, and confession gives outward agreement to what He has done. (Romans 10:6-10)

- Whoever believes on the Lord and calls on Him will not be put to shame; His salvation is available to all who call. (Romans 10:11-13)
- Renew the mind and align the mouth with what God says rather than with fear, circumstance, or the old identity. (Romans 12:2)

“Align your mouth with who He said you are. Align your heart in meditating on His Word and renewing your mind.”

STUDY Romans 10:6-13; Romans 12:2

03 Faith speaks to mountains instead of surrendering to their appearance.

- Jesus commands His disciples to have faith in God and speak directly to what stands in the way. (Mark 11:22-23)
- Prayer receives before circumstances change; believing gives thanks and continues to stand. (Mark 11:24)
- Authority is exercised in agreement with heaven rather than through silence, fear, or natural reaction. (Matthew 18:18)

“Through God all things are possible to him that believeth.”

STUDY Mark 11:22-24; Matthew 18:18

04 Bearing good fruit requires daily cooperation with the Word and the Holy Spirit.

- Abiding in Christ supplies the spiritual life, nourishment, peace, and joy needed to produce lasting fruit. (John 15:4-11)
- The Father tends and prunes fruitful branches so they may bear more fruit. (John 15:1-3)
- Feelings do not govern the believer; the Holy Spirit leads the heart into love, truth, and self-control. (2 Timothy 1:7)

“You have to make a decision to cooperate with God.”

STUDY John 15:1-11; 2 Timothy 1:7

05 The Word nourishes the heart until the life of Christ flows naturally through speech.

- A healthy tree is known by healthy fruit; heart transformation must precede changed speech. (Matthew 12:33-35)

- God's Word is spirit and life, strengthening the inner person and supplying truth under pressure. (John 6:63; Ephesians 3:16)
- When pressure squeezes the believer, truth, victory, love, and the presence of God should be what comes out. (Proverbs 18:21)

"Our tongue needs to be hooked up with Christ in us so that the authority of heaven is released out of our mouth."

STUDY Matthew 12:33-35; John 6:63; Ephesians 3:16; Proverbs 18:21

06 Continue standing until the promised harvest becomes visible.

- Resistance does not cancel the promise; fight the good fight of faith and remain planted in what God said. (1 Timothy 6:12)
- After doing all, stand with the armor and truth God has supplied. (Ephesians 6:13-14)
- Seed, time, and harvest require continued faith-filled agreement instead of impatient or fearful speech. (Galatians 6:7-9)

"You keep speaking life. You keep decreeing. You keep declaring. You speak over that harvest, and trust me, it will surely come."

STUDY 1 Timothy 6:12; Ephesians 6:13-14; Galatians 6:7-9

What kind of fruit will your words produce?

What harvest are your most repeated words currently producing in your heart, home, and circumstances?

Where do your words need to come into agreement with who God says you are in Christ?

What mountain will you address with faith, and which Scripture will govern what you say?

What daily practice will help you abide in Christ and continue speaking life until good fruit appears?
