NOTES

Truth to carry into the week.

01 Live by every word from God.

- In the wilderness, Jesus answers temptation with Scripture: human life depends on more than physical bread. Let God's Word shape what sustains you. (Luke 4:3-4)
- Deuteronomy recalls manna in the wilderness so God's people would learn dependence on the words that proceed from His mouth. (Deuteronomy 8:1-3)
- Return to the Word when an immediate need or appetite presses for first place. Seek the Father's truth before acting. (Luke 4:4)

"Man shall not live by bread alone"

STUDY Luke 4:3-4; Deuteronomy 8:1-3

02 Receive the Word with unveiled hearts.

- Reading can remain only information when the heart resists Christ. The veil is taken away in Him. (2 Corinthians 3:14-16)
- Ask the Holy Spirit for understanding and let what you read draw you into relationship with Jesus. (2 Corinthians 3:16-18)

- The goal is a transformed life that reflects the Lord, not merely the accumulation of religious facts. (2 Corinthians 3:18)

“the veil is taken away in Christ”

STUDY 2 Corinthians 3:14-18

03 Let the Father’s will become your food.

- Jesus tells His disciples that His food is to do the will of the One who sent Him and to finish His work. Obedience nourishes His mission. (John 4:31-34)
- Ask what faithful action God is calling you to take today. The Word invites a lived response. (John 4:34; James 1:25)
- Make room to listen, then do the next thing He has made clear rather than postponing obedience. (James 1:25)

“my food is to do the will of him who sent me”

STUDY John 4:31-34; James 1:25

04 Hear the Word and do it.

- James describes the one who looks into the perfect law of liberty, continues in it, and becomes a doer rather than a forgetful hearer. (James 1:25)
- Bring one truth from Scripture into a decision, conversation, or act of service this week. (James 1:25)
- The blessing belongs to the one who acts on what has been heard, not simply the one who remembers a sermon. (James 1:25)

“becomes a doer of the word”

STUDY James 1:25

05 Come to Jesus, the Bread of Life.

- After feeding the crowd, Jesus calls them beyond bread that perishes toward the food that endures to eternal life. (John 6:22-27)
- He declares Himself the Bread of Life. Coming to Him and believing in Him addresses the hunger beneath material need. (John 6:32-35)
- Receive Him personally rather than treating His gifts as the final destination. The Father draws people to the Son. (John 6:35,44-45)

"I am the bread of life"

STUDY John 6:22-40; John 6:44-45

06 Remember the Lord in every season.

- Deuteronomy warns that fullness and increase can lead people to forget the God who led and fed them. Remember Him in abundance as well as need. (Deuteronomy 8:10-14)
- Do not claim every provision as the work of your own hands. Give thanks for the abilities and opportunities God has given. (Deuteronomy 8:17-18)
- Keep listening to His Word and following His leading through changes in circumstance. (Deuteronomy 8:18; John 10:27)

"you shall remember the Lord your God"

STUDY Deuteronomy 8:10-18; John 10:27

How will I live by His Word?

Where have I looked for life in something other than God's Word?

What passage do I need to read again with the Holy Spirit's help?

What clear instruction from Jesus can I put into practice today?

How can I remember and thank the Lord for His provision this week?
